

written as a song to climb out of despair and offering hope to others during the Gulf War

Anthem of Hope

We can come back to hope again
so we sing to rise above
asking forgiveness for all the time has come
this pain

We can come back to life again

this pain
