

Free the Park!

On this bright sun day hear the whooshing of sounds as the cylinders go round and round with no cars we can all play in Golden Gate Park it's fun, take your mark!

*As in-line skates fly by tryin to catch the bicycle riders skateboards spin and jive
a symphony of wheels
the park alive
as skates fly by
tryin to catch the bicycle riders
skateboards jump and jive
a symphony of wheels
no auotomobiles, no automobiles?
no auotomobiles, /no auotomobiles?
no cars!*

tenor sax solo

cars and mopeds confined to streets and avenues outside leaving walkers and joggers and ice cream hawkers to provide the trees with some company

*It's a modern day sylvan landscape it's a San Francisco pastoral scene so why not free the park!
it's the wrong place
for all our automobiles free the park! free the park! free the park!
t's the wrong place for all our automobiles free the park! free the park! free the park! free the park! for what it's supposed to be! free the park! free the park! free the park! For what it's supposed to be!*
