

Liquid Love

Salt and pure water the sacred blood as the oceans on this earth so we are seventy percent water crying the sea in salt tears

The primordial substance for all species flowing from and returning to for purification

Liquid sound of slide on guitar string like the flow of this life force Gaia to all its progeny

The more we love, protect and revere the water the closer we are to the spirit of this island here spinning in space
