

No Clue

capo 0

Sometimes its all I can do to cut a path from me to you in this mess we're in, I'm thinking that you don't hear me,
and I don't wanna let you in

I have no clue
no matter what I say or do after all we've been
after all that we've been through
I have no clue
Do you, do you?

Sometimes all I can feel is the hurt, will it heal?
In this, this mess we're in, I realize that I don't hear you,
and you don't wanna let me in

I have no clue
no matter what I say or I do
after all we've been
after all that we've been through
I have no clue
do you, do you?

I have no clue
no matter what I say or I do
it's the truth
after all we've been
after all that we've been through
I have no clue
Do you, do you?
