

Our Disneyland

Disney characters are fun to be the theatre darkens and on the screen are tails and fears and mouselike ears of Mickey and Minnie of you and me
of animation we are and feel together, the hand that sculpts our choppy motion through flickering light has felt the call for deviation some new creation
some phase of paint
or paste
or photmache,
some celloloid state
or multi-media place,
the palette is here
our palette is rare
these lives richer for the colors it bears
