

The Gift of Awe

Intro

Love is more than humans caring for each other when we're in awe it's a kind of love

When I feel low sometimes the galaxies bring the gift of awe and I feel hope to hear the universe call

Einstein defined, mysticism as standing rapt in awe yeah without awe the universe becomes just a marketplace for us yeah without awe the earth we run like a marketplace for us

This kind of love
this kind of love is real this love can heal
can make you drop your jaw for some this love's like God it is the gift of awe

When you feel blue try the redwoods or the river to pull you through just fall in love
you got the gift of awe

Sometimes we just know we need the mountains or the ocean to soothe the soul
we got the gift of awe just fall in love you got the gift of awe

Our love must grow for all creation cause in our youth on earth we hold such power of destruction but the gift of awe is one hope for the human for us human folks

It's our love, our love yeah the gift of awe baby it's our love
mm.. mmmm... mmmmm

Thanks to Brian Swimme and Matt Fox for offering the concept gift of awe. Some ideas from Matt Fox's book, Creation Spirituality.
