

To a friend I've never met

hurt in a neuro accident no time to think
just react
as you lie there
aware
unaware of events,
we pray

When someone you care so much for cares so much for another, you care
I was in your place once in a neuro accident
at that time my life immortal yours too I imagine,
when this happened

She loves you,
she sees me in you
lying there
    I was then,
a friend she had never met time nothing but hope and healing, communication then, as now on levels other than words

To a friend I have shared this place and her with,
please
stay here
